

K-Love serves me by providing an uplifting message which helps me go through the day with a more positive attitude. The loss of this programming would affect the community negatively because other programming has a neutral to damaging effect. The service provided by K-love offers a message of hope sadly lacking in our nation today.